Francis moved to hire Mary Meyer as the deputy TC/TC if her background check is positive, seconded by Steve and approved.

The Selectmen agreed to follow up on the additional recommendations to hire an administrative clerk if her background check is positive.

Francis moved to approve minutes and non-public minutes (x2) for June 2, 2009, seconded by Steve and approved.

The Police Chief discussed the racetrack and there were some issues on Saturday and he also said he showed up but there was no race on Sunday. The Chief said he would be placing an order for uniforms.

Selectmen signed a tax warrant for the tax collector for the first issue taxes, Intent to Cut for Fraser, M/L 12-01-13, 01-02-01 & 12-01-09, and a septic design for Saras M/L 01-04-05.

Selectmen talked with the Warren Wentworth Ambulance Service about the papers filed with the state and the capital reserve fund. The Ambulance Service wants the money from the capital reserve now to pay off the balance of the ambulance. Brian said they will put in the difference themselves between the capital reserve fund and the amount owed. Brian said they were no longer a non-profit since 2000. Selectmen will review the paper work.

Steve moved to adjourn the meeting at 6:54 pm, seconded by Francis and approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet E. Woolner
